AN ACT

TO PROTECT PURCHASERS FROM FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCES OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Whoever with a fraudulent intent to place personal property which is subject to a mortgage, beyond the control of the mortgagee, removes or conceals or aids or abets in removing or concealing the same, and a mortgagee of such property who assents to such removal or concealment, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year.

SECTION 2. A mortgagee of personal property who sells or conveys the same or any part thereof without the consent of the mortgagee in writing, and without informing the vendee or grantee that the same is mortgaged shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year.

SECTION 3. A hirer or lessee of personal property who sells or conveys the same or any part thereof without the consent in writing of the owner or lessor, and without informing the vendee or grantee that it is so hired or leased shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year.

SECTION 4. Whoever, holding collateral security deposited with him for the payment of a debt which may be due to him, sells, pledges, lends or in any way disposes of the same before such debt becomes due and payable, without the authority of the depositor thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than two years.

SECTION 5. Whoever with intent to defraud, buys, receives or aids in concealing personal property, knowing it to be hired or leased or held as collateral security, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year.

SECTION 6. Whoever being in possession of personal property received upon a written and conditional contract of sale, with intent to defraud, sells, conveys, conceals or aids in concealing the same before the performance of the conditions precedent to acquiring the title thereto, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year.

SECTION 7. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

Approved this 24th day of April, A. D. 1911.

WALTER F. FREAR,
Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.
